MANUAL

OF THE

First Presbyterian Church,

JOHN A. GRAY, PRINTER, 16 & 18 JACOB STREET,
FIRE-PROOF BUILDINGS.

Sketch of the History of the Church.

In the month of August, 1665, the ship Philip dropped its anchor at Elizabethtown Point. It conveyed from England to the shores of New-Jersey Philip Carteret, the first Governor of the Province, and about thirty emigrants. These debarked, and together with the dwellers in some log huts, which had been previously erected, formed the first settlers of Elizabethtown. The persons residing in the log huts were from the east end of Long Island, induced to remove here by John Ogden and his associates. The persons who settled Long Island were generally Puritans from England and New-England; and as John Ogden was a pious Puritan, we may infer that the first white inhabitants of Elizabethtown were pious persons, and of the old Puritan stamp.

As in those days the emigrants from England to the Northern States were generally persons whose religious principles subjected them to persecution, we may infer that the settlers brought here by Carteret were mainly of Puritan faith. And this inference is greatly strengthened by the facts, that we find them heartily agreeing with the people of Newark, who were decided Puritans, "to be of one heart and consent, with God's blessing, in endeavoring to carry on their religious concernment;" and that until 1704, when the Episcopal church was organized, the First Presbyterian Church was the only one in the town.

As the Church Records were lost during the war of the Revolution; and the Records subsequent to that, to the year 1800, during the partial insanity of the Rev. David Austin; we have no Session minutes previous to the settlement of the Rev. Dr. Kollock. This renders an exact history of the church for nearly three quarters of a century impossible. And after all the best information that can be collected from other sources is arranged and collated, there is yet left a wide margin for conjecture.

We know not when the church was first organized. Because of the character of the first settlers, and of the leading associates, of whom we may take John Ogden as a specimen, we conclude that the church was formed immediately after the settlement of the town. It is not likely that the man who offered prayer and thanksgiving on "Dividend Hill," on the settlement of a dispute between the people of Newark and Elizabethtown, would be long without church privileges, if he could help it. Hence, this claims to be the oldest congregation in the State, worshipping God in the English language. Nor has it any competitor for this honor, save its venerable sister church of Newark, which dates its existence from October, 1667.

Nor is it known, whether the people first organized as a Presbyterian or as an Independent church. The churches of Newark and Woodbridge were Presbyterian. There was very early a large emigration here from Scotland. There is neither record nor tradition that it ever changed its polity, or that it was ever any thing else than Presbyterian. It is very likely that for some years its government assumed no particular form, but that when it did, it took a decided Presbyterian form, which it has ever since decidedly maintained. The influence of the church on the community was very early apparent, as Rudyard in 1683 describes the people, as "generally a sober, professing people, wise in their generation, and courteous in their behavior."

Nor is it known when the first church edifice was erected. It stood where its more imposing successor now stands. It was a building of wood, with galleries; and when first erected was small. It had a high steeple, with a town clock in it; and it was probably in it that the Legislatures under the Proprietors, and the Supreme Court held their sessions. It was enlarged and beautified on several occasions. Fired by the torch of a refugee, it was burned to ashes on the 25th of January, 1780.

The foundations of the present church were laid in 1784. Whilst yet incomplete, it was dedicated to the public worship of God, by the Rev. Dr. McWhorter, of Newark, in January, 1786. Its fine steeple was erected during the ministry of Mr. Austin. It was reseated and greatly repaired in 1842; and in the year 1851 it was enlarged and placed in its present state of beauty and taste, at an expense of about ten thousand dollars.

The first minister of the church of which we have any record, was the Rev. Seth Fletcher. He died in 1682. It is very probable that from the founding of the church to the settlement of Mr. Harriman, there was no settled pastor, the people depending, as do many new congregations now, upon occasional supplies.

The Rev. John Harriman became pastor in 1682, and died in 1704.

A Mr. Melyne was settled here in 1704; he was here but for a short time; but whence he came, or whither he went, none know.

The Rev. Jonathan Dickinson was settled in 1708, and died Oct. 7, 1747. The College of New-Jersey was founded here during his ministry.

The Rev. Elihu Spencer, D.D., succeeded Mr. Dickinson. He was settled Feb. 7, 1750, and removed to Trenton in 1756. It was during his ministry that the congregation received that charter from the Crown under which it yet holds its property. It was granted and signed by Gov. Belcher, Aug. 22, 1753.

The next pastor was the Rev. Abraham Kettletas. He was installed Sept. 14, 1757. Because of some difficulties with the people and Presbytery, he was dismissed after a brief pastorate, towards the close of 1759; the date is uncertain.

He was succeeded by the Rev. James Caldwell, who became pastor in December, 1761. He was shot at Elizabethtown Point, Nov. 24, 1781. His life and death have become a part of the history of the country.

He was succeeded by the Rev. William Linn, D.D., June 14, 1786. He remained but a few months, as he was dismissed to become a pastor in New-York, Nov. 1, of the same year.

The Rev. David Austin became pastor, Sept. 9, 1788. Because of partial insanity he was dismissed by the Presbytery from his charge, May 9, 1797.

He was succeeded by the Rev. John Giles, June 24, 1800. He remained but a few months, and was dismissed Oct. 7, of the same year.

He was succeeded by Henry Kollock, D.D., on the 16th of Dec., 1800, who was dismissed Dec. 21, 1803, to become Professor of Divinity in the College of New-Jersey.

He was succeeded by the Rev. JOHN MCDOWELL, D.D., Dec. 26, 1804, who was dismissed to become a pastor in Philadelphia, April 30, 1833.

He was succeeded by the present pastor, who was installed July 23, 1833.

Form of Covenant,

USED AT THE ADMISSION OF MEMBERS TO THE COMMUNION OF THE CHURCH.

Do you believe in one only living and true God, infinitely excellent and glorious; and that there is a trinity of persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, in this divine essence? Do you believe in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice? Do you believe that you are sinners, and as such deserve the wrath of God forever? Do you believe in Jesus Christ as the Saviour of sinners, the only mediator between God and man? Do you believe in the necessity of the renewing and sanctifying operations of the Holy Spirit; and that you must be holy, in order to be happy? Do you believe in the resurrection of the dead, and in a general judgment? Do you believe these things? [Here the candidates bow assent.]

And now—Do you take this God—the Father, to be your Father—the Son, to be your Saviour—and the Holy Ghost, to be your Sanctifier; and do you receive these Scriptures as the rule of your faith and practice? Do you, as far as you know your own heart, unfeignedly repent of all your sins; and look and trust for salvation to the righteousness of Christ, received by faith in him? Do you engage to walk with God in the ways of new obedience? Do you promise subjection in the Lord, to the constituted authority of this church, and to walk in brotherly love with its members? And do you engage to be diligent in the use of the means of grace, such as reading the Scriptures, prayer, self-examination, and attendance on the public worship and ordinances of God's house? And thus, through the grace of God strengthening you, you engage to act until death? [Here again the candidates bow assent.]

Then the Minister says—In consequence of the profession which you have now made, and the engagements into which you have now entered, I do in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, receive you to the communion of this church, and give you a right to all its privileges. This is followed by a suitable exhortation, to the new members, and the congregation.

☞ It is recommended to our communicants, frequently and with careful self-examination, to read over the above form of covenanting.

FORM USED AT THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN.

Baptism was instituted by the Lord Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church, to be a seal of the covenant of grace, and the ordinance of admission to a visible standing in his church. The water in this ordinance implies guilt and pollution; and represents to us justification by the blood of Christ, and regeneration and sanctification by his Spirit. But you are not to conclude that this, or any outward ordinance whatever, will be sufficient for the salvation of the soul; it is the blood of Christ alone that cleanseth from all sin, and to this you are exhorted ever to look for your own salvation, and that of your children. If it should please God to spare your lives, and the life of your child, until it comes to years capable of receiving instruction, it will be your duty to teach it, or cause it to be taught to read God's holy word; to instruct it in the great principles of the Christian religion, of which there is an excellent summary in the Confession of Faith and Catechisms of our Church, which are recommended to you for your own perusal, and to be diligently taught your child; to pray for it and with it; to set an example of piety and godliness before it; and by all the means of God's appointment to bring it up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. These duties, or whatever you are convinced, or shall be convinced from the word of God, to be binding on you as Christian parents, you do promise and covenant, in the presence of God and his church, that as God shall give you strength you will endeavor to perform and do? [Here the parents bow assent.]

☞ It is recommended to parents who have offered children to God in baptism, frequently and with careful self-examination, to peruse the preceding form.

N. B.—It is a rule of the Session of this Church that strangers may commune with us one year; but that after the expiration of a year, they must either produce a certificate from the church to which they have belonged, and connect themselves with this church; or give to the Pastor, or Session, a reason why they do not bring a certificate.

According to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, members dismissed are always considered under the watch, and subject to the discipline of the church dismissing them, until they are actually received by the church to which they are dismissed. See Confession of Faith, under head of Discipline, chap. 10, sect. 1.

In the same book, under the same head, chap. 11, sect. 2, we find also the following regulation, to which the attention of our members is directed: "No certificate of church-membership shall be considered as valid testimony of the good standing of the bearer, if it be more than one year old, except where there has been no opportunity of presenting it to a church.

N. B.—Members removing within the bounds of other churches, ought to procure certificates of dismission, and connect themselves with the church within the bounds of which they reside. The neglect of this duty has frequently much deranged the order of Christ's house, and been productive of great evil to the members so acting.

QUESTIONS,

WHICH ARE SOLEMNLY PROPOSED TO THE CONSCIENCES OF THE MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH.

Do you punctually attend public worship?

Are you always, unless necessarily prevented, in your place at the table of the Lord?

Are your children baptized?

Do you fulfill your baptismal engagements to them?

Do you daily maintain secret prayer, and family worship?

Do you love one another?
